REPORT.

TO THE QUEEN'S MOST EXCELLENT MAJESTY.

MAY IT PLEASE YOUR GRACIOUS MAJESTY,

1. We, the Commissioners of Charitable Donations and Bequests for Ireland, humbly submit to your Majesty this our Forty-second Annual Report.

2. Since our last Report 32 meetings have been summoned, at all but 2 of which a quorum attended. We have made 352 orders in various matters affecting charities and charity property, besides providing for the regular issue of the sums payable to the charities under our control.

3. Of the amount of our solicitor's costs for the past year, £19 0s. 6d. only, is chargeable upon the Vote as irrecoverable, the remainder being provided for out of the various charity funds.

4. The Exchequer continues to receive from us £41 18s. 4d., being the annual dividend on an old endowment from private sources placed in the hands of the late Board in 1815, "to assist them in recovering embezzled charities." This is not required for that purpose so long as costs and expenses incurred, and not otherwise realized, are paid out of the Parliamentary vote. For the last ten years the sums so remitted by us to the Exchequer have exceeded those paid to us to defray irrecoverable costs; the former being £419 3s. 4d., the latter £102 19s. 4d.

5. The aggregate amounts held by us on the 1st of January, 1867, were as follows:—

	£	s.	d.
New 3 per Cent. Stock, . . . . .	275,399	17	4
Consols, . . . . .	156,654	11	3
Cash, . . . . .	2,021	18	3
Miscellaneous Securities, . . . . .	16,294	15	5

In addition, we receive rents and annuities of the yearly value of £2,843 15s. 7d.

6. Funds for various charitable purposes, to the number of 296, have been lodged with us, from time to time, since the "Charitable Donations and Bequests Act (Ireland) 1867" enabled Trustees to make such voluntary transfers.

The entire amount so received since 1867 is:—

	£	s.	d.
New 3 per Cent. Stock, . . . . .	126,319	15	6
Consols, . . . . .	36,363	18	4
Cash, . . . . .	66,268	12	3
Miscellaneous, . . . . .	12,967	0	6

A detailed list for each of the past four years will be found in the third schedule.

In the last year, taken separately, these amounted to:—

	£	s.	d.
New 3 per Cent. Stock, . . . . .	2,994	0	2
Consols, . . . . .	101	3	3
Cash, . . . . .	6,257	11	5
Miscellaneous, . . . . .	627	6	11

During the past year sums have been deposited with us for various charitable institutions and purposes, amongst others for the Sisters of Charity, Dublin—Parish Church and Poor of Ballintemple—Poor of Ballycutter—Poor of Malahide—Church of Ireland Poor of the Parishes of Derryaghy and Drumbeg—Kilmeague Free School—Dublin Discharged Female R.C. Prisoners' Aid Society—Irish Association for Promoting the Employment and Training of Women—Wexford Infant School—Protestant Poor of Glenties Parish—Linen Hall-street Belfast Presbyterian Church and School—Queenstown Methodist Chapel.

In accordance with the practice referred to in some of our previous Reports, and in order to guide Executors and others in the discharge of their duties, we desire to point out that all charitable bequests must be published in local newspapers in accordance with the provisions of 30 & 31 Vic., cap. 54, sec. 19. But where the charity is of small amount, or where the circumstances appear to warrant it, we have entrusted to our Secretaries the discretion of exempting from advertisement, upon their satisfying themselves either that the bequests have been paid, or that some good reason exists for not publishing. As much misapprehension appears to prevail with regard to the liability of charitable bequests to the payment of legacy duty, we beg to point out that by the 38th section of the 5th and 6th years of your Majesty's reign, cap. 82, bequests for purposes merely charitable in Ireland are exempt from duty. They must, however, be for purposes exclusively charitable, and not for purposes or objects merely pious. As regards purposes merely charitable, in order to exempt even these from duty, there must be either an obligation imposed by the Will that the bequests shall be applied in Ireland, and not elsewhere, or it must be clearly deducible from the language of the Will that they are to be applied in Ireland and that all discretion to expend them elsewhere is taken away. The rate of duty, when chargeable, is in all cases 10 per cent.

For some time past executors have shown considerable remissness in attending to their duties under the publication sections, and we have been compelled in some cases to instruct our Solicitor to proceed to recover the statutable penalties for non-publication. The mere threat of legal proceedings has had the desired effect in the great majority of cases, and we hope that in only a few will it be necessary to proceed further.

In Elizabeth Streen Coslecon's Charity, for founding an Academy of Music in Dublin, mentioned in previous reports, by order of the Vice-Chancellor, dated 6th August last, a scheme for the administration of the Charity was settled, whereby trustees were appointed to carry out the trusts of the will of testatrix by establishing an Academy of Music in conjunction with the Royal Irish Academy of Music, but on a separate foundation, and the scheme is now in operation.

In Archibald McComas's Charity, which was a bequest of £500 for the promotion of Irish Fisheries, and in which the fund was transferred to this Board by order of the Court of Chancery, subject to the trusts of the will, we have handed over the fund to the Trustees of the Baltimore Fishery Industrial School for the benefit of that institution, as we were of opinion that in no other way could the fund be administered with such advantage to the Irish Fisheries.

An application was made to us by the Trustees of Patrick Hewitson's Charity to authorize them to sell the Charity estate under Lord Ashbourne's Act. The powers enabling us to authorize sales of Charity estates are conferred upon us by section 14, 30 and 31 Vic., c. 54. Being satisfied that the proposed sale would be advantageous to the Charity, we felt justified in authorizing the sale, thereby enabling the trustees to make good their title before the Land Commissioners.

During the past year we have been on some occasions called upon to exercise our powers of giving our opinion and advice to the trustees of Charities, thereby affording them immunity for any action taken in accordance with such opinion, provided that they have not been guilty of any fraud or wilful concealment or misrepresentation in obtaining such opinion or advice.

We have also been called upon to exercise our powers of sanctioning beneficial leases of Charity property not authorized by the trusts. We have exercised our powers of sanctioning the compromise of claims, thereby saving the Charity funds from heavy costs. And in cases where it has become unlawful or impracticable to apply charitable donations and bequests according to the intentions of the founders, we have framed schemes for their application where we had the power to do so, and in some other cases we have applied by petition to the Court of Chancery proposing schemes for their application.

Our charity accounts for the year ended 31st December, 1885, were duly audited and declared correct by the auditor appointed for that purpose by the Local Government Board. The accounts for the year ended December 31st, 1886, have been prepared and submitted for audit.

Accounts of the sum voted by Parliament have been regularly furnished by us, in accordance with the forms adopted under the direction of the Treasury, and the provisions of the "Exchequer and Audit Departments Acts, 1866;" and our Appropriation Account for the year ending 31st March, 1886, has been certified to be correct by the Auditor-General of Public Accounts.

All which we submit as our Report, and in testimony thereof we have caused our Corporate Seal to be hereto affixed this 19th day of July, 1887.

Present when seal affixed :
